HOW DO I STAY INFORMED DURING AN EMERGENCY??

Fires can happen suddenly and change quickly, so don't rely on receiving a warning. It's your responsibility to stay informed and alert. Be flexible – get emergency information from multiple sources and never rely on any one source.

The best way to stay informed during an emergency is to seek information from a variety of sources.

You can get information by:

- using the Emergency WA website www.emergency.wa.gov.au
- staying in touch with neighbours, family, and friends
- being alert and aware of your surroundings
- following DFES on Facebook
- listening to ABC local radio, and
- tuning in to 6PR in the metropolitan area.

If someone you know tells you about a possible emergency, or if you can see or smell something that might be dangerous, that is your warning. Take immediate action to stay safe. Do not wait to receive a warning or text message.

The warnings on the Emergency WA website are also available by calling the relevant agency, for example the DFES emergency information phone line (13 DFES or 13 3337) or the Bureau of Meteorology's recorded message line 1300 815 916.

BROOMEHILL HERITAGE TRAIL

Have you walked the Broomehill Heritage Trail yet and noticed that the QR codes don't work? Well – now they

BUSHFIRE WARNING SYSTEM

	EMERGENCY WARNING An out of control fire is approaching fast and you need to take immediate action to survive. If you haven't prepared your home it is too late. You must seek shelter or leave now if it is safe to do so.
	WATCH AND ACT A fire is approaching and there is a possible threat to lives or homes. Put your plan into action. If your plan is to leave, make sure you leave early. If your plan is to stay, check all your equipment is ready. Only stay and defend if you are mentally and physically prepared.
	ADVICE A fire has started but there is no immediate danger. Stay alert and watch for signs of a fire. Be aware and keep up to date.

do! When scanned with a mobile device, the QR code will direct you to the Shire's website, where, in collaboration with the Broomehill Heritage Group (BHG), we have been able to upload photos and documents that were previously hidden away in the BHG's extensive collection.

The pages are available to view online at <https://www.shirebt.wa.gov.au/explore/trails/broomehill-heritage-trail.aspx>.

There are still some gaps in the information that we have been able to present, and we'll continue to work with the BHG to fill these gaps, and to make the Trail more interesting. If you have something that might be of interest, don't hesitate to contact the BHG President, Anne Guazzelli on 0488 620453.

HOW DO I KEEP INFORMED?

FIRES CAN HAPPEN SUDDENLY AND CHANGE QUICKLY, SO DON'T RELY ON RECEIVING A WARNING. It's your responsibility to stay informed and alert. Be flexible – get emergency information from multiple sources and never rely on any one source

STAY CONNECTED

Connected communities are safer communities.

Keep in contact with neighbours, friends and family, especially during high fire-risk day.

Talk to your local brigade about how to prepare for a bushfire.

STAY ALERT

If you can see or smell a bushfire – that's your warning.

Your surroundings could be the best source of information.

If you live in, or near bush, you need to stay alert. If there are signs of a bushfire you could be in danger. Act immediately to keep you and your family safe.

KEEP YOUR DETAILS UP TO DATE

A telephone warning might be sent to your mobile phone or landline in extreme circumstances. This warning system (Emergency Alert) uses the address held by your phone company.

Keep your address details up to date with your phone company to give yourself the best chance of receiving a warning if one is issued.

ANZAC Day 2024

Broomehill

Just over 80 locals attended our early morning service on ANZAC Day. Doug Barritt very ably ran proceedings, with students from Broomehill Primary School reciting the Ode and attending to the flag duties.

Everyone then proceeded to the Town Hall and sat down to a very delicious breakfast cooked by members of the Heritage Group.

We would like to thank the Broomehill-Tambellup Shire for their on- going support for this event.

ANZAC Day 2024 Tambellup

Once again the Tambellup Lions Club in conjunction with the Tambellup CWA and the Shire held the ANZAC service at the war memorial in Tambellup.

A good crowd assembled to hear the ANZAC Day address presented by Rachael Thomas (nee Trevenen) recounting her fathers time in Vietnam.

Winton Nazzari recited the poem "A Tribute to ANZAC Day" and then Andrew Bradshaw sang his own song "Bye Bye Bribie".

The crowd then adjourned to the CWA rooms to partake in morning tea and consume a huge variety of ANZAC biscuits whilst awaiting the announcement of this years winner of the Anzac biscuit bake-off.

This years judge, Karen Callaghan presented Elle Sprigg with the winners prize. Congratulations Elle.

Inaugural Walkanu Art Prize Ignites the Spirit of First Nations Creativity for NAIDOC

In an exciting development for Australia's First Nations artistic community, the Goldfields Aboriginal Business Chamber is delighted to announce the launch of the inaugural Walkanu Art Prize. This competition, designed to celebrate NAIDOC Week, offers a unique platform for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artists, who live in Australia and are aged 16 and above, to showcase their talents.

Participants are invited to submit their work across four diverse categories: 2D Art (drawings, paintings etc), 3D Art (sculptures, weaving, carvings etc), Digital Art, and Photography. Aligning with the 2024 NAIDOC theme "Keep the Fire Burning! Blak Loud and Proud," artists are encouraged to explore and express their cultural heritage, personal stories, and perspectives through their art.

The Walkanu Art Prize not only provides an opportunity for artists to gain recognition and exhibit their work in Kalgoorlie and Esperance but also offers prizes totalling $15,000!

Moreover, the Walkanu Prize emerges as a pivotal initiative for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander economic development. By removing financial barriers such as entry fees and reducing barriers to access for regional and remote Western Australian artists by providing artwork drop-off points in locations such as Leonora, Esperance, Albany, and Broome for free transportation to Kalgoorlie for final judging and exhibition, the prize will directly contribute to empowering First Nations artists.

For detailed information on entry requirements, category specifications, and submission guidelines, interested artists are encouraged to visit the official Walkanu Art Prize website at walkanu.com.au. This platform also serves as the portal for all entries, ensuring a streamlined and accessible application process.

For more information, call Jade on 0452 2324 407 or Claire on 0450 046 018, or email us at hello@wanderaroundevents.com.au.

Raine&Horne®

April's meeting was well attended and much discussion was had about up and coming events. Our meeting presided over a nice hot cuppa and a Icelandic spice cake made by Amanda Bryce, as our country of study for 2024 is Iceland.

April 16th was Badgebup/Rockwell's 90th Birthday Celebrations. This birthday was well supported by surrounding CWA members as well as Tambellup. The CWA state president Anne Gething was in attendance and handed out Badgebup/Rockwell their centenary badges and portfolios. A wonderful day was had looking through 90 years of memorabilia over a delicious lunch. Finally a delicious 90th Birthday cake was cut by Mrs Hersey (President) and Mrs Matthews (Longest Badgebup CWA member within current ladies). A great day was had by all with much laughter and chatter. Thanks also to Thlama Nazzari for her beautiful native bouquet she gave to Badgebup/Rockwell

Our next meeting will be held at 10am at the CWA rooms on the 9th May 2024.
Please come and join us over a hot cuppa and scrumptious morning tea.

Congratulations Beth Trezona!

Last month Beth was presented with the prestigious award, Admission as Member to the Order of St John, the highest honour within St John's awards. A national and internationally recognised award. Her dedication to St John WA, her community and fellow volunteers is admirable.

Our community is very fortunate to have Beth as part of our team.

There was a full field of 16 teams coming from Albany, Corrigin, Denmark, Gnowangerup, Halls Head, Frankland, Eaton, Mt Barker, Albany, Kojonup, Ongerup & Tambellup.

The driving competition was held as a warm up on Monday evening and was won by B Roughly from G Bain, both from Denmark.

There was keen competition over the next two days with long time campaigners from Frankland taking out first place. This was the team of P Challenor, S Morgan, E Morgan & G Hulland.

Second was a team from Halls Head skippered by H Williams.

Third was a composite team from Tambellup skippered by P Bradshaw.

Fourth place went to A Crabbe's team from Gnowangerup.

Events like this would not be possible without the tremendous effort put in by Pip Newing and her helpers keeping food flowing for the entire carnival.

Lastly, thanks to all our sponsors , your continued support makes it possible to run this Classic.
