Background

The Shire of Broomehill-Tambellup is a progressive rural community located within the Great Southern Region. The Region is predominantly a sheep and grain producing area with a growing interest in viticulture, horticulture and tourism. The Shire has a population of approximately 1,139 people and covers around 2,813 square kilometres with approximately 272km of sealed roads and 754km unsealed roads.

The Shire has two towns, Broomehill Village and the Tambellup town site, that offer advantages of rural lifestyle with the convenience of most essential services including recreation and leisure facilities, government, health and education services.

The Shire was formed on 1 July 2008 with the voluntary merger of the previous Shires of Broomehill and Tambellup.

The vision of the Council is based on strong traditions, to provide:

- A great place to raise children
- Clean, green and prosperous
- A tradition of innovation – readily embracing new people and new ideas
- A strong sense of hospitality and tolerance
- Pride in our towns

The Council is committed to: achieving a better quality of living for the people in the community; providing a great place to live, work, raise children and visit, which will encourage a range of lifestyles and opportunities; caring for our natural environment, cultural diversity and heritage.

Structure & Roles

As with all Local Government Authorities, the Shire of Broomehill-Tambellup has a Council of elected members who are responsible for directing the Local Government's affairs; overseeing the allocation of finances and resources; and determining strategic direction and policies. Elected members are volunteers who represent the community and act as a decision making body.

Paid employees come under the direction of the Chief Executive Officer who is responsible for the implementation of Council decisions and the day to day administration of Local Government functions.

The Council

The role of the Council is to:

- direct and control the local governments affairs;
- be responsible for the performance of the local government's functions;
- oversee the allocation of the local government's finances and resources;
- determine the local governments policies.

The role of the President is to:

- preside at meetings in accordance with the Local Government Act (1995);
- provide leadership and guidance to the community in the district;
- carry out civic and ceremonial duties on behalf of the local government;
- speak on behalf of the local government;
- perform such other functions as are given to the President by the Local Government Act (1995) or any other written law;
- liaise with the Chief Executive Officer on the local governments affairs and the performance of its functions.

The role of Councillors is to:

- represent the interests of electors, ratepayers and residents of the district;
- provide leadership and guidance to the community in the district;
- facilitate communication between the community and the Council;
- participate in the local governments decision-making processes at Council and Committee meetings;
- perform such other functions as are given to a Council by the Local Government Act (1995) or any other written law.

The Council sets the direction and policies of the local government whereas the Administration, managed by the Chief Executive Officer, must ensure Council decisions and policies are implemented.

The Administration

The functions of the Chief Executive Officer are to:

- advise the Council in relation to the functions of a local government under the Local Government Act (1995) and other written laws;
- ensure that advice and information is available to the Council in order that informed decisions can be made;
- cause Council decisions to be implemented;
- manage the day to day operations of the local government;
- liaise with the President on the local government's affairs and the performance of the local governments functions;
- speak on behalf of the local government if the President agrees;
- be responsible for the employment, management supervision, direction and dismissal of other employees;
- ensure that records and documents of the local government are properly kept for the purposes of the Local Government Act (1995) and any other written law;
- perform any other function specified or delegated by the local government or imposed under the Local Government Act (1995) or any other written law as a function to be performed by the Chief Executive Officer.

Council may delegate to the Chief Executive Officer certain sections of its powers and duties. The Chief Executive Officer may delegate powers and duties of his/her office to other employees (Local Government Act (1995) s5.42 and s5.45).

For the purposes of Subsection (1) (e) of the Freedom of Information Act 1992, the application has to state whether the person wishes the amendment to be made by:

- altering information;
 - striking out or deleting information;
 - inserting information;
 - inserting a note in relation to information; or
- in 2 or more of those ways.

Freedom of Information Procedures & Access Arrangements

Freedom of Information legislation may be used to request access to information not available by any other means.

The Shire is to administer the Freedom of Information Act 1992 in a way that assists the public to obtain access to documents promptly and at the lowest reasonable cost.

Documents which are not available for public access include personal information and information concerning the business, professional, commercial or financial affairs of a third party who is not the applicant.

Freedom of Information applications can be discussed with the Shire's Freedom of Information Coordinator (currently the Chief Executive Officer).

Freedom of Information Operations

It is the aim of the Shire to make information available promptly and at the least possible cost; whenever possible, documents will be provided outside the Freedom of Information process.

If information is not routinely available, the Freedom of Information Act 1992 provides the right to apply for documents held by the Shire and to enable the public to ensure that personal information in documents is accurate, complete, up to date and not misleading.

Freedom of Information Applications

Access applications have to:

- be in writing;
- give enough information so that the documents requested can be identified;
- give an Australian address to which notices can be sent;
- be lodged at the Shire with any application fee payable.

Enquiries can be made to the Freedom of Information Coordinator by telephoning (08) 9825 3555 or in writing to:

Shire of Broomehill-Tambellup
