Background

The Shire of Broomehill-Tambellup is a progressive rural community located within the Great Southern Region. The Region is predominantly a sheep and grain producing area with a growing interest in viticulture, horticulture and tourism. The Shire has a population of approximately 1,139 people and covers around 2,813 square kilometres, with approximately 272km of sealed roads and 754km unsealed roads.

The Shire has two towns, Broomehill Village and Tambellup, that offer advantages of rural lifestyle with the convenience of most essential services including recreation and leisure facilities, government, health and education services.

The Shire was formed on 1 July 2008 with the voluntary merger of the previous Shires of Broomehill and Tambellup.

'People Power' Broomehill-Tambellup Strategic Community Plan 2023 to 2033

Community Vision

'a region driven by community spirit'

Through Community engagement, Broomehill-Tambellup's common words and phrases to explain its point-of-difference include:

Strategic Community Plan-on-a-Page

A plan for the aspirational strategic phase 2023 to 2033, with delivery within this current four-year phase 2024-2028. This plan is to be delivered by all community members if they so desire, including contributions by the Shire's workforce.

- Other Property and Services: Private works operations, public works overhead costs, plant operation costs and unclassified items.

Structure and Roles

As with all local government authorities, the Shire has a Council of elected members who are responsible for directing the Local Government's affairs; overseeing the allocation of finances and resources; and determining strategic direction and policies. Elected members represent the community and act as a decision-making body.

Paid employees come under the direction of the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) who is responsible for the implementation of Council decisions and the day-to-day administration of local government functions.

The Council

The role of the Council is to:

- direct and control the local government's affairs;
- be responsible for the performance of the local government's functions;
- oversee the allocation of the local government's finances and resources;
- determine the local government's policies.

The role of the President is to:

- preside at meetings in accordance with the LG Act;
- provide leadership and guidance to the community in the district;
- carry out civic and ceremonial duties on behalf of the local government;
- speak on behalf of the local government;
- perform such other functions as are given to the President by the LG Act or any other written law;
- liaise with the CEO on the local government's affairs and the performance of its functions.

The role of Councillors is to:

- represent the interests of electors, ratepayers and residents of the district;
- provide leadership and guidance to the community in the district;
- facilitate communication between the community and the Council;
- participate in the local governments decision-making processes at Council and Committee meetings;
- perform such other functions as are given to a Council by the LG Act or any other written law.

The Council sets the direction and policies of the local government whereas the administration, managed by the CEO, must ensure Council decisions and policies are implemented.

The Administration

The functions of the CEO are to:

- advise the Council in relation to the functions of a local government under the LG Act and other legislation;
- ensure that advice and information is available to the Council in order that informed decisions can be made;
- implement Council decisions;
- manage the day-to-day operations of the local government;
- liaise with the President on the local government's affairs and the performance of the local government's functions;
- speak on behalf of the local government if the President agrees;
- be responsible for the employment, management, direction and dismissal of other employees;
- ensure that records and documents of the local government are properly kept for the purposes of the LG Act and any other legislation;
- perform any other function specified or delegated by the local government or imposed under the LG Act or any other legislation as a function to be performed by the Chief Executive Officer.

The Council may delegate to the CEO certain sections of its powers and duties. The CEO may delegate powers and duties of his/her office to other employees (LG Act s5.42 and s5.45).

Details of Decision-Making Functions Affecting the Public

The Shire Council consists of seven (7) Councillors, including the Shire President. Councillors are elected for a four-year term and retire on a rotation basis with as near as practicable to one half of the Councilors retiring every second year.

Cr Michael White	2027

Elections are held on the third Saturday in October in the election year.

The Shire President is elected at the first meeting of the Council following an election. The Presidential term is for two years, and the Shire President chairs all ordinary meetings of the Council.

Council Meetings

The Ordinary Council Meeting is held on the third Thursday of every month commencing at 4.30pm, unless advertised otherwise.

Committees of Council

Formal Committees of the Council are established under the LG Act, these Committees are an immediate extension of the Council. Each meeting shall be called, conducted and recorded in accordance with the LG Act (i.e. local public notice of meetings, public question time, Standing Orders Local Law, formal minutes, etc.)

- Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee
- Chief Executive Officer Performance Review Committee

Public Participation in the Formulation of Policy and Performance of Shire Functions

Members of the public can participate in the decision-making process in a number of ways:

Attendance at Council Meetings

Ordinary Council meetings are open for the public to attend. The agenda for the meeting is available before the meeting date and can be obtained from the Administration Office. Each Council agenda includes Public Question Time and Petitions/Deputations/Presentations as standard items.

Written Requests

A member of the public can write to the Council on any policy, activity or service of the Council.

Public Consultation

The Council consults with the public on issues by way of advertising in the local paper, calling public meetings and seeking responses to surveys and questionnaires.

Advertisements are placed inviting public submissions as required by legislation for development projects and Council plans.

In situations where property owners may be directly affected by a decision, those owners are contacted directly.

Elected Members

Elected members contact details are made available to the public should anyone wish to discuss issues relevant to the Council.

Membership of Advisory Committees

Whilst not established under the LG Act, these Advisory Committees do not require the same formalities as the Audit and Risk Improvement Committee. Minutes of these meetings will also be presented to the Council and all recommendations considered through a written report.

For the purposes of Subsection (1) (e) of the Act, the application has to state whether the person wishes the amendment to be made by:

- altering information;
- striking out or deleting information;
- inserting information;
- inserting a note in relation to information; or
- in two or more of those ways.

Freedom of Information Procedures and Access Arrangements

Freedom of Information legislation may be used to request access to information not available by any other means.

The Shire is to administer the Act in a way that assists the public to obtain access to documents promptly and at the lowest reasonable cost.

Documents which are not available for public access include personal information and information concerning the business, professional, commercial or financial affairs of a third party who is not the applicant.

Freedom of Information applications can be discussed with the Shire's Freedom of Information Coordinator (currently the Chief Executive Officer).

Freedom of Information Operations

It is the aim of the Shire to make information available promptly and at the least possible cost; whenever possible, documents will be provided outside the Freedom of Information process.

If information is not routinely available, the Act provides the right to apply for documents held by the Shire and to enable the public to ensure that personal information in documents is accurate, complete, up to date and not misleading.

Freedom of Information Applications

Access applications have to:

- be in writing;
- give enough information so that the documents requested can be identified;
- give an Australian address to which notices can be sent;
- be lodged at the Shire with any application fee payable.

Enquiries can be made to the Freedom of Information Coordinator by telephoning (08) 9825 3555 or in writing to:

Shire of Broomehill-Tambellup
46 – 48 Norrish Street, Tambellup WA 6320; or
Email: mail@shirebt.wa.gov.au

Applications, which must be made in writing, and enquiries will be acknowledged in writing and the applicant will be notified of a decision within 45 days.

Freedom of Information Charges

A scale of fees and charges (set under the Act's Regulations) exists. Apart from the application fee for non-personal information, all charges are discretionary. The charges are as follows:
